

SNAC Workshop Report Template

SNAC members who attend various Workshops may use this template to create a report to share information with other members of the group.

| | |
|--|--|
| Report Written By: | Barbara Schnider |
| Title of Workshop: | Montreal Autism in Motion Conference: Autism - Human Diversity |
| Date of Workshop: | March 22, 2015 |
| Brief Description of Workshop: Opening Speaker: Charles Lafortune : “Following our Son’s Lead “. Charles Lafortune is a Quebec actor and game show host. He has been on radio and has starred in many theatrical productions. Charles has been nominated for and received many awards for his work on television. He currently hosts the show “ La Voix ” on TVA , which is the Quebec version of the American show “ The Voice “.He has been a spokesperson for his sons’ school ,Giant Steps and is currently the official spokesperson for the Miriam Foundation’s “ See Things My Way “ campaign. | |
| Main Points that were Learned: | |
| 1) The presentation opened with a video of students in Giant Steps set to the Hedley song – “ I Can Do Anything “ which was very powerful. | |
| 2) Mr. Lachance spoke about his son, who has Autism and how much his son has taught him. | |
| 3) He spoke about the Jean Coutu group donating $5 million to the Miriam Foundation to help assist families touched by ASD. | |
| 4) | |
| 5) | |
| Web Links for Additional Information: | |
| 1) | |
| 2) | |
| 3) | |
| Titles of Printed Materials for More Information: (distribute one hard copy to the members at the next SNAC meeting, who may request that copies be made) | |
| 1) | |
| 2) | |
| 3) | |
| Additional Comments: | |
| | |

SNAC Workshop Report Template

| |
|--|
| |
|--|