SNAC Chat Newsletter

Autumn 2014

Welcome to SNAC Chat!

Compact news items for the special needs community

Welcome to the new school year.

As our children settle in to their new terms or new schools you may find yourself needing extra resources or just somebody to answer any questions you have about your child with special needs. Here at SNAC we work to provide the information you need to help you and your child. We meet monthly and are composed of parent members and school officials and always welcome parents who wish to sit in and view what we do. We can point you towards workshops, help you with IEP issues or simply provide you with information on the many local resources available to you and your child. For more information about who we are and what we do, please visit the SNAC website at <http://snac.lbpsb.qc.ca>.

IEP News:

IEP time can be a little overwhelming, you can often find yourself with more questions than answers. Will this cover everything my child needs? Who can have input into an IEP?

How Can SNAC Help?
